Thanksgiving Mass for our Parish and Farewell

Saturday 24th September at 11am

A shared table - savoury and sweet!

I would like to thank everyone who spoke to me after the Masses last weekend. It has been suggested that rather than having cupcakes, people bring along food for a shared table so that we can enjoy lunch together.

This can be both savoury and sweet.

As a shared table it a preferred option, this is what we will go with.

Therefore, if you are able to bring things along that everyone can enjoy then it would be very good.

There will also be tea, coffee, juice and wine.

We will be using the Garden Room, where people will be able to sit as well as in the garden itself - do bring a rug or chair as hopefully the weather will be good.

I hope that, as a community, we can make this a great celebration for all that has, and continues to happen, in our Parish.

Thank you for all your support and I look forward to celebrating with you on the 24th September.

Prayerfully yours,

Fr. Paul
