Trinity Sunday

The Sick of the Parish

We ask your prayers for all our brothers and sisters who are unwell, afflicted or distressed. Comfort and relieve them according to their needs, and grant them the love and consolation of your Spirit:

Trinity Sunday

When every I think of Trinity Sunday, I always think of the film 'Nuns on the Run', with Robbie Coltraine. The two main characters are involve with a gang in London, but want to leave. They eventually try to escape, but end up hiding in a convent, where one of them has to teach a class on the Trinity, with lots of questions being bombarded at him, He begins to lose his cool and eventually says, the Trinity is like a Shamrock... small, green and split three ways!

The Trinity is not the easiest thing for us to understand, but seeing God as 'community' helps us to understand that he is always outward looking, always thinking of others, always thinking of those that he created and loves.

Rublev's Icon of the Trinity, which I have pictured on the front, shows the idea of God as 'community'. Sitting around, always looking outward. That is what we too are all called to do; be every looking outward towards others, rather than inward towards ourselves!
