Thanksgiving Mass for our Parish and Farewell

Saturday 24th September at 11am

A shared table - savoury and sweet!

I am looking forward to being able to celebrate Mass with all those who can make it next Saturday.

After the Mass, there will be a shared table in the Garden Room.

The room will be open from 9am for anyone wanting to bring things along early.

Please, if it is a warm day, it would be advisable not to leave anything out that could 'turn' if left un-refrigerated for too long. The Garden Room does get very warm.

There will also be tea, coffee, juice and wine available.

You will be able to sit as well as in the garden itself - weather permitting - so do bring a rug or chairs with you. If the weather is not good, then we will use the Parish Hall.

I hope that, as a community, we can make this a great celebration for all that has, and continues to happen, in our Parish.

Thank you for all your support.

Prayerfully yours,

Fr. Paul

Note from the Finance Committee.

Father Paul will leave us on the 26th September, heading north, back to his homeland. It is appropriate that we recognise his immensely positive influence as our Parish Priest and offer him a financial gift in appreciation of his ministry to Saint Mary Magdalen's. A bright red collection box will be available at the back of the church for all your generous contributions until Father Paul finally leaves. Let us show our, usual generosity in thanks for the service of our wonderful priest.

House Keeping

At the end of each Sunday Mass, it would be really helpful if people could return any newsletters that they are not intending taking home back to the porch; as well as any of the Order of the Mass leaflets. There is only me that is here after each Mass to tidy up, and often there are lots of the them just left. Please do remember that we should treat the church as we do our own homes.

Thank you in advance.
