Today's Gospel: In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community. In response to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven, Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed. Today we hear Jesus address a dispute between two members of the Church, and outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. Failing that, the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church. Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance. Courtesy of Loyola Press

Evangelii Gaudium Sunday: A Call to Mission in England and Wales. In 2013, the first year of his pontificate, Pope Francis released an Apostolic Exhortation on the joy of the Gospel entitled Evangelii Gaudium. In it, he encouraged the Christian faithful to "embark on a new chapter of evangelisation" marked by this joy, whilst striving to find new paths to proclaim the Gospel in today's world. Formerly known as Home Mission Sunday, Evangelii Gaudium Sunday is celebrated each year on the Third Sunday in September. Next week there will be a second collection taken for the work of the Home Missions.

Canonical Visitation: As part of his visit to Ipswich on the weekend 16th/17th September, Bishop Peter Collins will be at St Mary Magdalen church to celebrate the vigil Mass at 6:00 pm on Saturday evening. Parishioners are encouraged to attend this Mass, either as well as or instead of their usual Sunday Mass, and avail themselves of the opportunity to meet Bishop Peter. There will be light refreshments in the Garden Room after Mass.

Can you help? This is an appeal to all 8:00 am Mass attendees. We have a lady who requires a lift to and from 8:00 Mass each Sunday for a few weeks while she recovers from a medical condition. She lives in Anglesea Road, Ipswich. If you are able to help, please have a word with Fr Paul who can put you in direct touch with the person.

RCIA Forms: Any person considering becoming a Catholic, or wanting to enter full Communion with the Catholic Church, should complete one of the RCIA Registration forms which can be found at the back of the church and on the parish web site. Completed forms should be handed to Fr Paul or Fr Luke.

The Sick of the Parish: We ask your prayers for Patrick Doran and all our brothers and sisters who are unwell, afflicted, housebound or distressed.

Lord, comfort and relieve them according to their needs, and grant them the love and consolation of your Spirit. Amen.

Our Own Dear Departed: Of your charity, pray for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed and especially for Patrick Clifford (1998), Katherine Brett (2005), Canon William Burrows (1959), Thomas Finegan (1969), Hilda Moss (1961), Jennifer Bishop (1972) and Mary Bulbeck (1994) whose anniversaries occur about this time.

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace
