I apply for permission for the ashes of the deceased named below to be interred in the Memorial Garden of St Mary Magdalen church. I understand that:

- it is not possible to bury any form of casket or urn containing the remains which must be brought to the church in the cardboard box in which the crematorium issues them to the undertaker. At the burial they will be reverently poured into the hole which will be prepared in advance;
- artificial flowers, wreaths and memorials are not permitted;
- real flowers may be left but all wrapping and packaging must first be removed;
- no planting is permitted in the flower beds;
- there is a one-off fee of £100 payable in advance to St Mary Magdalen church to cover the cost of the interment and ongoing maintenance.
